THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The importance of the N.A.S.C. club representative cannot be overestimated. His, or her, contribution to numismatics and to our association is very substantial. As stated in our constitution and by-laws, control of N.A.S.C. is vested in our Board of Governors, one member of whom is elected or appointed by each member club, and known as a "Club Representative". There are also 6 additional board members who are elected at the annual business meeting and all elected officers are also board members.

A major portion of N.A.S.C. committee chairmen and members are chosen from the ranks of the club representatives. By actual practice, the business affairs of the N.A.S.C. are conducted by this dedicated board, and I might add, in a very capable manner. If you are a "Club Representative", your club should hold you in high esteem.

It is incumbent upon each member club's president to have the N.A.S.C. club representative give a report periodically. When the club president does not do so, it becomes the responsibility of the N.A.S.C. club representative to see that he is called upon to give a report of N.A.S.C.'s activities. This is the only means by which the member club can be kept properly informed of the activities of the regional organization with which it is affiliated.

Officers, board members, N.A.S.C. club representatives, committee chairmen, committee members and many volunteer workers perform all the time consuming jobs necessary to conduct a fine convention. All this and much more, the tremendous number of hours devoted for the benefit of N.A.S.C. members and its affiliated clubs, are all performed without any compensation. Why do we do this? Because we all share a common desire to advance our hobby of numismatics.

N.A.S.C. was not organized for profit. Our constitution states that the purpose of the association is to foster and promote interest in the art and science of numismatics among its members and the general public. How has N.A.S.C. accomplished this?

1. By conducting an outstanding annual numismatic convention in which you and your Club may be proud of, and take satisfaction from, knowing that you are partially responsible for its obvious success.
2. By providing an auction of very high quality conducted by one of the foremost numismatic auction houses in the U.S.
3. By providing one or more educational forums utilizing renowned numismatic authorities as speakers.
4. By providing an exhibit hall in which anyone may display their numismatic exhibit to thousands of persons and compete without charge for awards supplied by N.A.S.C.
5. By providing free to all members our official publication, the N.A.S.C. Quarterly, which publishes numismatic articles of interest, and Club news, etc.
6. By maintaining a free money museum, with a curator who periodically changes the numismatic material on display.
7. By encouraging member clubs to execute a quality bulletin and supplying a presidents trophy for the best one.
8. By encouraging outstanding service to numismatics and supplying the Goodson award to the recipient for so doing.
9. By encouraging the writing of numismatic literature and providing literary awards for the outstanding articles.
10. By providing free publicity about its member clubs in the Quarterly relating both to the club's news and to its time and place of meeting.
11. By providing a grievance committee which will arbitrate intracub disputes if requested by a member club.
12. By providing election tellers if requested by a member club.
13. By frequently supplying installation officers for clubs.

14. By maintaining an outstanding visual education bureau and to a lesser degree a numismatic library, for the free use of its member clubs or members.

15. By maintaining a speakers bureau composed of many of the finest and most knowledgeable numismatists in the area.

16. By conducting the first major numismatic club workshop, with its sole objective, to promote the advancement of numismatics by helping individual coin clubs improve the quality of their meetings and solving general coin club problems.

In view of the foregoing, I personally feel the N.A.S.C. is doing an exemplary and outstanding service for its club and individual members and our hobby of numismatics. It is our hope that in the future, we will be able to extend our area of service to N.A.S.C.'s member clubs.

Last July 24th, numismatic history was made by the N.A.S.C. Under the sponsorship of its board of governors, the first major numismatic club workshop was held to help solve problems common to many coin clubs. The workshop was an overwhelming success. Many letters of commendation have been received by N.A.S.C. for undertaking such an important and complicated project on behalf of its member clubs and all coin clubs. There were 83 persons in attendance, many of whom may be seen in the six photographs printed elsewhere in this quarterly. Of the total of 80 N.A.S.C. member clubs, 47 clubs sent from one to three delegates and 33 member clubs did not participate. It is ironic, I suppose, but rather to be expected that some of the clubs without representation are among those clubs that need this type of help the most.

It was recommended that delegates take notes and many of them did so and have already formulated an organized list of proven ideas to implement in their own coin clubs. In due course, N.A.S.C. will transcribe and condense the entire workshop subject matter and it will be made available, without charge, to all interested numismatists. I must thank my co-chairman, Val C. Morgensen for doing an exceptionally fine job and Claire Abelson and Evelyn and Bill Sadler for all of their efforts to produce the successful event that it was. To Coin World and Margo Russell for the attendant publicity, the N.A.S.C. is grateful, as it is to Ralph "Curly" Mitchell for being our luncheon speaker.

Also, I would like to thank my many friends in our hobby for their encouragement when it was most needed; and to all of you who took the time and effort to pose questions and submit recommendations, and to each of you who personally publicized this important numismatic event by the written and spoken word. Last but certainly not least, I want to thank all of you who attended this workshop and thereby contributed to the advancement of our marvelous hobby in such a positive and practical manner. You can be justly proud of yourself for participating in this first N.A.S.C. sponsored numismatic club workshop held for the benefit of its member clubs.

IN MEMORIAM

Karl Brainard, long active in the Numismatic field, unexpectedly passed away on August 21, 1971. He is survived by his widow, Alice I. Brainard, his son Karl R. Brainard and two daughters, Thea Clarkson and Leonora Donald, three grandchildren and great-grand-children.

Karl was born in Greenfield, Mass., in 1893, was brought to California by his parents in 1894, and married Grace MacLean in 1913. As a young man he was a life guard at Long Beach, sang with the Percy Mason Light Opera Co., and from there went into motion pictures. During the early 20's he was with the original William Fox Picture Co., in later years he built and operated the first large camera crane for 20th Century Fox. At the time he retired from the motion picture business he was head of the set building department.

It was not until 1944 that Karl became interested in numismatics. In 1954, Karl was the founder and organizer of N.A.S.C. He held Life Membership No. 247, was a member of C.S.N.A. and many of our local organizations.

In 1954 he felt that Southern California was being overlooked by the large numismatic organizations. California had at that time more members in the A.N.A. than any other section of the country. He felt the answer to this situation was to organize an association of our own. After a great deal of consideration, he called a meeting of well known collectors and dealers, and out of this meeting evolved the Numismatic Association of Southern California. To say it has been a successful organization, is a mild statement. It is known the world around. His desire was fulfilled. Thanks to Karl we have a great association.

His passing is mourned by all, and he will be greatly missed by many friends.

AUCTION!

AUCTION!

RARCOA is proud to have been selected to conduct the Auction at the forthcoming N.A.S.C. SUPER SEVENTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION to be held in Los Angeles on February 24-27, 1972.

It is their intent to conduct a sale that will measure up to all past N.A.S.C. successes and to their own previous sales -- such as their very successful 1970 A.N.A. sale, and their more recent record breaking Auction, the 1971 C.S.N.A. sale that featured the outstanding Masters collection of Large Cents. In order to insure the quality of our Auction, they wish to solicit your choice better grade and rarer singles, sets, paper money, gold, silver, copper, and other Numismatic material from the U.S. or foreign countries.

Remember, IT IS NOT TOO EARLY to submit your material. DO IT NOW before the consignments are closed and you miss the chance to have your material included.

COLLECTOR PROFILE

By William O. Wisslead

Charles G. Colver is a native Armenian, born at Pomona on December 2, 1920, he grew up on an e ranch near Covina. During developing years he worked at a and as a caddy near Big Bear weekends and during school ons. He attended Covina ar and High School then y College where he graduated an Associate of Arts degree. During World War II Charlie in the 45th Infantry Division United States Army, in Ger- France and England. He re- the Purple Heart and Bronze ong with many other medals ere awarded him for heroism on. However, Charlie would h talk about how, during his r duty in England, he really ooping" on British numismatics. eturning home to Covina fol- vi his tour of duty completed, a found that Mary, the little l knew at the age of five had w up. Charlie and Mary were r September 29, 1945 and are e ad parents of two sons, John d yard, and a daughter, Marylou. er working as a tool-and-die ke with the Douglas Aircraft Co, bme involved with the United States Department of Agriculture, Forest Service as a Fire Dispatcher in the Angeles National Forest.

Duty with the Forest Service was destined to become his life work, the kind of duty that brings him much satisfaction, for Charlie is a person dedicated to serving mankind.

Charlie is presently serving the Forest Service in the capacity of Supervisory Research Technician at Glendora, California. This involves the study of watershed management problems for the research branch of the United States Forest Service. Recently he received his twenty-five year pin from the Department of Agriculture of which he is justifiably proud.

Charlie's interest in the collecting hobby was engendered at the age of seven by an English Florin, that his grandmother's brother had brought home following World War I; the coin presented to Charlie aroused his interest. That English Florin sparked an interest that has grown through the years in anything numismatically British, and has culminated in a detailed study of the British Commonwealth. This is evident by the scholarly type of programs he presents. You recognize at once his knowledge of British Commonwealth numismatics covers a wide field, and a high degree of learning.

Recognizing a growing interest in anything numismatically connected with the United States and British Commonwealth coins, Charles felt a need to share his hobby and "labor of love" with many others. This sharing of his knowledge makes any numismatic organization, whether a local club, regional or state association; prosper and develop.

In 1952 he became No. 542 of the California State Numismatic Association; he is now a life member. His American Numismatic Association membership No. is 20075. He has served as a board member of Orange County Coin Club, San Bernardino County Coin Club, Covina Coin Club, and is a past president of all three. Currently secretary of California State Numismatic Association, a position he has held since 1965. His devotion to duty is reflected in the smooth running of the secretarial position.

Charlie has put in writing a part of his vast numismatic knowledge. His articles have appeared in The Numismatist, publication of the American Numismatic Association; CalCoin News, quarterly publication of the California State Numismatic Association; and the Numismatic Association of Southern California publication, the Quarterly. He was awarded the California State Numismatic Association Silver Literary Award, two successive years. The coveted Heath Literary Award, from the American Numismatic Association. At the 47th Semi-Annual convention of the California State Numismatic Association, October 31, 1970, he received their highest award, the Medal of Merit.

Whether he is secretary, general chairman of a convention, guest speaker or writing an article for publication, whatever the job, when Charlie accepts you know it will be well done. He is one of Southern California's most sought after speaker. Charlie has a way of drawing the crowd out, of capturing their attention. You leave the meeting with a feeling that you have learned something new.

In addition to all these duties and contributions, Charlie finds time to take part in civic duties in the city of Covina. He holds membership in the Disabled American Veterans, 45th Infantry Division Association, Presbyterian Voyagers Club, Chaffey College, John Muir Club, American Forestry Association, National Rifle Association, and the Southern California Association of Foresters Firewardens.

When you've come to know this erudite numismatist, you realize that numismatics has a great benefactor, due to his varied contributions to the science of collecting. He not only believes in the statement that "numismatics is for all ages", but for a lifetime enjoyment of an individual. His face lit up with a smile, you know he enjoys every moment of it. Charlie admits that one of his big pleasures is his association with fellow collectors. For Charlie, numismatics holds many years of collecting pleasure, and a growing list of friendships that are collected along the way.

HISTORY OF JERUSALEM

The ancient city was proclaimed the capital of the new state of Israel on December 14, 1948.

The history of Jerusalem dates back to about 1500 B.C., but the city is much older. It has been destroyed and rebuilt many times. The story of the city is relevant to the social composition of the country and the religious aspirations of the various faiths, as well as being essential to an appreciation of the architecture of the town.

The city-state was founded by David in about 1000 B.C. In 597 B.C. the Babylonians looted the city, and carried off the king, and totally destroyed the city in 586. In 538 B.C. after Persia's absorption of the Babylonian Empire, the Jews returned to their city.

During a long period of incursions by Greeks, Egyptians and Romans, with intervals of peace, much fine building took place; this ended in 65 B.C., with the capture of Jerusalem by Pompey. This conquest was to remove the city from Jewish control for 2000 years. During the procuratorship of Pontius Pilate, 27-36 A.D., Jesus of Nazareth was crucified. At the time this was the end of a series of executions of political and religious leaders, but its subsequent importance was a decisive influence in shaping the course of the city's history. The Jewish unrest culminated in the revolt of 66 A.D., which was crushed four years later with the capture of Jerusalem by the Romans under Titus.

In 132, another revolt broke out and the Emperor Hadrian put it down. He established a Roman colony at Jerusalem. This was built on the ruins of the city, which once again had been destroyed in the fighting.

After the Emperor Constantine, Jerusalem flourished as the center of the Christian religion, and the Crucifixion and the Resurrection were commemorated with great churches and buildings.

The Persians sacked the city again in 614, and put the inhabitants to death. In 629, Heraclius, the emperor of the Eastern Roman Empire, defeated the Persians and restored the city, but in 637 the Arab Omar, entered the city as conqueror and established the Arabic-Moslem culture which survives to the present day.

The city still changed hands, however, and the Crusaders captured it in 1099, but in 1187 the Moslems destroyed the crusading armies.

Apart from the brief periods 1229-39, 1243-44 and the British mandate 1917-1948, the old city was under Moslem rule until the founding of modern Israel.

NEW JERUSALEM

The new city is the economic and administrative center of Israel. The buildings of the Israeli parliament are here, as are the headquarters of the Jewish Agency, the international body that helps immigrants to integrate into the life of the country. The Supreme Court is located in Jerusalem, and the city is also an important communications center and is strategically placed, from a defense point of view.

Even before the partition of Jerusalem, nearly all the city's industry was in Jewish hands, as many of the immigrants who entered the city were persons who brought with them substantial savings or valuables. They invested in new enterprises, and these often were financed or helped by sympathetic Zionist organizations, especially in the U.S. Both local trading and manufacturing prospered during World War II, when large military contracts provided the basis for expansion.

Printing and light engineering, the manufacture of food products, chemical, leather, glass and cigarettes are the principal local activities. Shoes and clothing are also manufactured, and light industry is springing up all the time, much of it on industrial estates provided for development.

The new city is the site of the Hebrew University, which was opened in 1925, and the extensions and rehousing of the colleges are part of many ambitious building projects.

THE "ELIZABETHAN ERA" – TIME OF CHANGE

FRANK HUGHES F.A.B.N.S.

Both the "Elizabethan Era" of Elizabeth I of England and of Elizabeth II of Great Britain will forever be known in history as a time of great change in British coinage. The present reign of Queen Elizabeth II will be recorded in history as the time of the great changeover to the new Decimal Coinage (in the 10th year of Her Majesty's reign, 1971), and in the year 1561, three years after Elizabeth I commenced her remarkable 45 years reign as Queen of England (1558-1603) another great change occurred which led to a decisive change in British coinage. In 1561, Eloye Mestrelle (sometimes known as Menestrel) a Frenchman who had previously been employed by the Paris Mint, arrived in England and introduced a new technique for making coins by a milled system. Previously, milled coins had been produced in Paris in the year 1552 (for Henry II of France), where such coinage had been acclaimed a great artistic success. The metal from which such milled coins were to be produced was fed between two heavy rollers driven by a mill to convert same into strips of uniform thickness from which, by use of a cutting tool also introduced by Mestrelle, circular coin blanks were cut, which in turn were stamped with the device by dies placed in a press.

Up to the time of this introduction of milled coinage, all coins had been made by workers at the mint using hammers to beat out the (hammered) coinage. Naturally, these workers seeing a threat to their skill and livelihood, opposed the introduction of machinery for making the milled coinage and were joined in this opposition by the officers of the mint who also felt threatened.

So it was, during this period, that both types of coinage were manufactured by the mint, the milled alongside the hammered coins. In 1572, the production of milled coinage was discontinued and the former exclusive method of making (hammered) coinage was restored, to the great satisfaction of the old-time mint workers and officials.

During the 10 years of making this first milled coinage, Mestrelle had struck both gold and silver coins with his horse-powered presses, consisting of half-sovereigns, crowns, half-crowns, shillings, sixpences, groats (four-penny pieces), three-pences, half-groats (two-penny pieces) and three-farthing pieces.

Thus ended the experiment of the first (British) milled coinage,

DOWNEY NUMISMATISTS COIN SHOW

The Sixth Annual Coin Show of the Downey Numismatists will be held on October 23rd and 24th at the Women's Club of Downey, 9813 Paramount Blvd., Downey, Calif. Walter Snyder has been named General Chairman, making this his sixth year in this capacity.

Doors will be open to the public from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M. on Saturday and from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. on Sunday. A donation fee of 50¢ is requested for registration, with all registrants receiving an elongated cent, which commemorates the show, and an identification pin and ribbon.

a great "First" and a sign of inevitable change.

Regretably Mestrelle did not live to receive the honor he so richly deserved, for together with two English companions he was hanged in 1578 for counterfeiting.

EARLY MAN

By GARY CAPATA

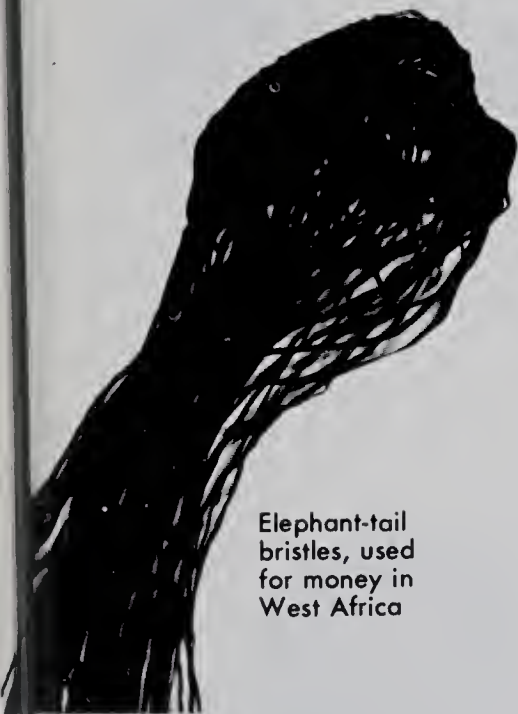

The first true coins were either gold or silver in the shape of beans. They were punched on one side with a number of squares. What was used before that time though? Well, to find out, money must be something that is a medium of exchange. For instance, if a tribe possessed a great quantity of fish, and if a tribe would buy a bowl of barley, the fish became a money item. Money is something that the other tribe does not have and wants. With this explanation in mind it is time to examine the money of early man.

In Africa it was found that in slaying an elephant the people used its tail for trading. The strange thing about the elephant tail being used is that even in some very remote places in Africa today you can find they are still used.

Wampum was used by the early American Indians and was made of beads cut from the shells of a marine clam. The beads were strung together into strands, then fastened together to form bands or belts.

There isn't much known about the way people of Europe traded during the stone age but it is believed that they used rocks, bones and barter.

EGYPT

The very early Egyptians did not have coined money. Instead they used a system known as barter. How it worked is when a man went to the market, he traded a certain amount of grain, for example, for a cow or sheep.

When barter became obsolete the Egyptians started using rings as a form of money. The rings were made of copper, which was the standard measure. Silver was 40 times more valuable than copper, and gold was twice as valuable as silver.

The Egyptians continued using ring money for quite a number of years even though coins were in use in other parts of the East. "It was only in 323 B.C., on the death of Alexander the Great, who conquered Egypt, that his general, Ptolemy, established the Dynasty of Ptolemies and issued coins in Egypt. The first silver tetradrachm showed the portrait of Ptolemy and was the first coin ever made with the portrait of a man." 1. Complete Bk of Coin Collecting p. 181

Egyptian ring money

EGYPT: Gold tetradrachm of Ptolemy II, struck between 270 and 246 B.C. The obverse (at left) shows Ptolemy II with Arsinoë II, his sister-wife; the reverse shows their parents, Ptolemy I and Berenice I, as gods.

EGYPT: Bronze coin representing Ptolemy V's wife, Cleopatra I (shown here in guise of Egyptian goddess Isis), who ruled Egypt from 181 to 173 B.C., during the minority of her son Ptolemy VI. The eagle and the legend on the reverse are almost obliterated on this specimen.

FERTILE CRESCENT

"It is generally accepted as a fact that the first stamped coins were issued by the merchants of Lydia, a seaport providence in Asia Minor, about 700 B.C." 2. They were made of electrum, which was a natural mixture of gold and silver that was found locally.

Lydia was conquered by the Persians, who also issued gold and silver coinage. The Persian gold pieces were called darics, after Darius the Elder. The silver pieces the Persians were known as "siglio or sheckels" as called by the Jews. The design of the early Persian coins was very different than that of the Lydian ones. Instead of using animals, which Croesus favored, Cyrus and Darius chose to represent the likeness of a king. On darics and siglai alike, we find a lively image of a crowned royal personage kneeling in battle. In his left hand he carries a drawn sword and in his right a quiver full of arrows." 3

There are three main Persian dynasties that are fairly well-known. They are the Ackaemenids, Arsacids and Sasanids. The Ackaemenid Dynasty of Persia was the one associated with the famous kings, Cyrus, Darius, and Verxes.

The Arsacid or Parthian Dynasty came into dominance in the mid third century B.C. For about four hundred years, the Parthians issued an interesting silver drachm series, that used the king's portrait on the obverse and a seated archer on the reverse.

The third and, in my opinion, the greatest dynasty of Persia, was the Sasanian Dynasty. The Sasanians were great warriors, who conquered Parthia and were the only nation to defeat the Romans. The Sasanian Dynasty was founded in 226 A.D.

The Assanians made their silver coins thin and flat, about the circumference of our half-dollar. The obverse bears the likeness of their kings. The reverse shows the fire altar with attendants, and these coins are often called "coins of the fire worshippers."

From The Editor's Desk

The 80th American Numismatic Association Convention is now past history to those who attended. Your editor was one of the 56 California (at last count) group present. So just a bit of information I think you may be interested in. Dignitaries could be seen during the entire convention, not only from the United States but from many other countries. I will leave the listing up to the major numismatic publications also many other items, the following I believe will be of interest to our members.

Total registration for the convention was 10,571. Can you imagine trying to find a person at any given time. One is on the run from one meeting, happening and event during the day to another. You decide best time to visit friends you may not have seen since the past ANA convention is in the evening. You soon find you are once again trying to keep up with events! By some chance of fate I did manage to visit, if only for a short time, with friends from Canada, Mexico, England, Belgium, Israel and a few new friends from far away places, also friends across the United States.

Election returns are always of interest, even here among our local groups. We often hear, few members fill out their ballot and send it to the committee. Here are a few figures to think about, 25,130 ballots were mailed to ANA members, 9,901 were received of which 136 were voided due to late arrival and some members voted for all seventeen candi-

Saturday found everyone on almost around the clock. Eight A.M. the Club Representatives Breakfast was the first item of business and it was well attended. The award for the outstanding club representative went to Sally Kirka in New England. Local club bulletin award (judged the 1970 most outstanding) was received by San Diego Numismatic Society. State or Regional publication judged the most outstanding, Calcoin News the California State Numismatic Association publication received the 1970 award.

Future American Numismatic Association Conventions confirmed; 1972 - New Orleans; 1973 - Boston; 1974 - Miami; 1975 - Los Angeles; and 1976 - New York.

Seven requests were submitted for 1977, 1978 or 1979. Cities requesting them are, Las Vegas, Nevada; Atlanta, Georgia; Dallas, Texas; Cleveland, Ohio; Saint Louis, Mo.; Detroit, Michigan and Puerto Rico.

Put on your thinking caps, remember N.A.S.C. has been awarded the 1975 ANA convention host. Check the registration figures again they are going to be tough to top.

The Quarterly is still in need of original articles, your cooperation is urgently requested. Remember your publication can only be as good as the members make it, the editor only makes sure your article, information or suggestions are put in print.

DEADLINE for Editor to receive Articles, bulletins, news, etc.

CLUB NEWS

AMERICAN BRITISH NUMIS. SOCIETY

The S.S. Princess Louise was the site of the third annual banquet of the Society. Newly elected officers were installed by S. Everett Phillips, president of the California State Numismatic Association; John Ballard; president; Ed McClung, vice-president; Randy Briggs, treasurer; Elizabeth L. Wisslead, secretary; Peggy E. Borgolte, past president; William O. Wisslead, James J. Waldorf, Mike Cash, and Charles Colver members of the board of governors.

Seventy members and guests were in attendance, among the guests were, the Honorable John O. Houlton of the British Consulate General office of Los Angeles and his lovely wife. Mr. Houlton was the guest speaker for the evening, speaking on the Decimal change over of the British Coinage. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. Birt Slater of 99 Co., Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Greene, who were observing their 44th wedding anniversary; Mr. and Mrs. Maurice M. Gould, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Abelson, Mr. Abelson is currently president of N.A.S.C., Mr. and Mrs. Abe Kosoff, Mr. Kosoff was the master of ceremonies and as always was outstanding. Mr. Phillips and Mr. Kosoff received a gift of appreciation from outgoing president Peggy Borgolte. Mr. Houlton was presented with the first sterling silver, Thomas a'Becket medal, struck by the Franklin Mint, twenty-four medals were made for the society. Founding member and first president of the society, Mr. Richard J. Trowbridge and his lovely wife were also present.

Charles Colver, awards officer, made the presentation to Mr. Houlton, the only Fellowship Award for the past year was made to Byron Johnson of Seattle, Washington.

Banquet chairmen, Elizabeth and William O. Wisslead provided, as always, a wonderful meal of Prime Rib enjoyed by all, plus a smooth running gala affair.

AZTECA NUMIS. SOCIETY

May speaker, William Braithwaite took the membership on a journey through Azteca and Mayan country, via slides. Do Not miss this excellent program at another club meeting, it is outstanding.

June was the Azteca annual banquet with the Maximilian Numismatic and Historical Society, held in conjunction with the Council of International Numismatics convention at the Los Angeles Hilton Hotel. Eighty members and guests attended. Armando Ojeda chairman for the event was also the master of ceremonies. Guest speakers were Virgil Hancock, for Azteca and Gabriel S. Narvarro for Maximilian. Both men are noted numismatists and their presentation held everyones undivided attention. Both were awarded plaques of appreciation.

Three surprise awards were made, most surprised was Armando Ojeda. Awarded Life Membership by unanimous vote of the Azteca board of governors for his outstanding service and devotion throughout the years to the society. Awarded a plaque of appreciation for his many contributions to Azteca was, Ed McClung. Maurice M. Gould, outgoing president of the Organization of International Numismatists, (O.I.N.), surprised Azteca president, Peggy Borgolte. Mr. Gould presented her with a plaque from O.I.N. stating, "In Appreciation of Your Meritorious Service."

Among the many attending were, Mr. and Mrs. John Fies, Mr. Federico Cerveria, Mr. and Mrs. Don Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. H. Trevino, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Abelson, Mr. Abelson is president of N.A.S.C., Mrs. Erma Stevens, better known as "Mother Azteca", Mr. Robert McCaa, Mr. William M. Dwyer, Mr. William Pettit, (both of Rarecoa); Mr. and Mrs. M. Gould, Mr. Clyde Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Christensen, Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Wisslead, Mr. Hal Bavaird, Mrs. Anna Merle Panosh, Mr. Les Hoge, Mrs. Elizabeth Case, Mr. Mrs. Janko, Mr. Gordon Greene, General Chairman of C.O.I.N.), Mr. Worthington, and Mrs. Norman Melbaum.. There are many more who were present but room does not permit listing all.

July speaker was Armando Ojeda, presenting an historical study of "Coats of Arms In Mexico".

In the next column are the photographs taken by Mr. Howard Case at the Annual Banquet of the Azteca Numis. Society and the Maximilian Numis. and Historical Society.

CALIF. FOREIGN COIN CLUB

Armando Ojeda, guest speaker in April; presented a commentary with slides titled; "Legal Coinage of The Mexico City Mint 1536-1970." May speaker, Peggy Borgolte presented a color film, "A Tour of West Germany." Rosendo Rivera, presented "The Music of World Numismatics." Featuring music from countries around the world. "Mayan Ruins of Yucatan" with slides, was the topic of Bill Braithwaite in July. Attendance at the July meeting was increased by ten guests and two new members.

CULVER CITY COIN CLUB

May meeting, the club anniversary was celebrated by a dinner in the Garden Room, Veteran's Memorial Center. American Numismatic Association slides on half-cent, one cent and two cent pieces shown and narrated by James L. Betton, was the program for June. July guest speaker, Peggy Borgolte, gave a brief summary of, "The Kings of Spain that Ruled Mexico".

No information was received on the anniversary dinner and July Meeting Notice was the last received by the editor.

CALIF. EXONUMIST SOCIETY

The Hotel Huntington Sheraton, Pasadena was the scene of the all day meeting, held to commemorate the 10th Anniversary of the organization.

Early-bird registrants, the first hundred received a "Boodle

Bag" of various items. Guests and members from Visalia, Fresno, Chino, Sand Bernardino, San Diego, and most most major cities and towns of Southern California attended.

Dwight A. Safford of San Diego, was recipient of the first LEONEL C. PANOSH Literary Award, presented by Alva Christensen, chairman of the Literary Awards Committee. His many informative and interesting articles during 1969 and 1970 added greatly to "The Medalion", bi-monthly publication of the society.

Elizabeth Case, president, honored the Past Presidents and all charter members who were present. Wayne Dennis, well known numismatist of Torrance, gave an excellent talk on, "Rare Wooden Money." Second speaker, Gil Schmidtman of Mentone, delighted the group with his recital of personal experiences in collecting "Nevadiana".

Highlight of the day was the cake-cutting. Anna Merle Panosh of San Diego was asked to preside at the ceremony. The enthusiasm and expressions of pleasure by the members and guests, will long be remembered by Ethel Stone, General Chairman for the event.

CAL TECH-JPL NUMIS. SOCIETY

"The Heritage of Coins" (illustrated with slides) was presented by Irwin Brotman at the June meeting. July program was a presentation of NASC slides entitled, "Coins of the Pagan Roman Empire."

Al Wiltsey is the new president, and other new officers names were received.

ONEJO VALLEY COIN CLUB

The club Newsletter is known as, "Coiney's Ramblings". June speaker was none other than the well known Melvin Kohl, his topic "A Review of Ethiopian Currency and Related History". Mr. Kohl's topic was based on his book "Ethiopia - Treasure House of Africa" and illustrated with slides. Tips on exhibiting Coins and Medals was so part of the meeting.

The Newsletter is most informative, listing not only the program but membership prize, guest prize, and regular door prize winners. Lists of the members and a listing of guests, dates to remember, coin quiz and coin puzzlers.

June was the last meeting for the summer, next meeting will be in September. November 7th the club will hold its Seventh Annual Coin Show, hope the editor receives more news on it.

COUNCIL OF INTERNATIONAL NUMISMATICS

From the reports, the June convention was a huge success. Although no publicity was received by the editor. Installation of the new officers took place August 1st at the Los Angeles Hilton Hotel. Maurice M. Gould, witty and charming speaker, always, installed the following officers; General Chairman, James Waldorf; Asst. Chairman, James Betton; Corresponding Secretary, Dorothy Greene; Recording Secretary, Betty Case; Treasurer, Dave Miller; Historian, Gordon Hunt. All chairmen for the June event were awarded a silver C.O.I.N. medal, each recipient's name was engraved on the reverse and the title of his chair. All Delegates (other than chairmen) were awarded plaques, with their name and the club they represented. Outgoing General Chairman, Gordon Z. Greene made the presentations and collected kisses from the ladies.

Elizabeth Wisslead, luncheon chairman, carried out her duties as usual to perfection. Elizabeth and William Wisslead are a numismatic family second to none.

DOWNEY NUMISMATISTS

May program featured Melvin Kohl, speaking on "Ethiopia, Treasure House of Africa".

The club not only has regular door prizes, there is a closing prize, special drawing prize, proof board drawings and one membership prize of $5.00 a month, by May it had reached $25.00. Dorothy and Gordon Z. Greene donated nine books to the club library. There is a Junior buy board, exhibits, bourse dealers, and auction plus a club display at the Golden State Bank. A very active club, the answer, interested and dedicated members.

Sol Taylor, well known in numismatic circles, June speaker, his topic "Glimpses of India - Coins and Currency." Sol spent eight weeks last fall touring India and visited fifteen cities. "The Coin Collector Today" was presented in July by Bob Allebe.

NOTE: The editor wishes to thank the club for the nice letter she received from them.

EAST L. A. COIN CLUB

February meeting was Member Participation Night Show and Tell about your Favorite Coin. March featured speaker, John E. Lenker, "Coinage of Sweden." Members are requested to donate any item they desire to the MINI-Auction. All proceeds go to the Crippled Children's Hospital. Congratulations, are in order, you may not be the biggest club BUT you have a big heart.

Sally Marx chose as her subject for the April Meeting, "Paper Money of Israel".

ECHO PARK COIN CLUB

The club celebrated their ninth Birthday in May with a party. Irwin Brotman was the guest speaker, while showing slides, he gave an interesting narrative on the "Beginning of Coins." June guest speaker, Charles G. Colver, spoke on "English and British Colonials."

The club has raised enough money to send one Boy Scout to camp and have a good start toward sending another one.

ERROR CLUB OF HOLLYWOOD

"Fearless Fred" Weinberg, as referred to in the program, was guest speaker in February, spoke on how the error coin hobby has evolved in the past few years. John Devine, April speaker told of the many unusual type letters he receives as an error coin dealer. Guest and members totaled 44 for the May meeting, guest speaker was Don Wallace presenting a color slide program on major and minor errors.

Mort Goodman was announced as the new treasurer. Ad Gludt, treasurer passed away in February. It was announced that the club would assist the Numismatic Error Collectors of America (NECA) with their fifth annual Error-A-Rama, at the Sportsmen's Lodge in North Hollywood, July 24-25. No news has been received to date, this news reached us to late to list in the last Quarterly.

FONTANA UNITED NUMIS.

March speaker, past president, Lou Boretich told of his experiences in North Carolina. His attending coin club meetings there with rather interesting tales to relate. April was to be a surprise program, the May speaker, a FUN member, no topic was given in advance and this editor still has not received further information. June program was related to the adventures of an artless artist, three F.U.N. artists will tell all about it. July the club held their annual White Elephant Sale.

GENERAL DYNAMICS COIN CLUB

June meeting program, A Dutch Auction. Sorry, the June bulletin was the only one received, as promised. if the editor receives only one item it will be published. N.A.S.C. is happy to note this member club has reprinted the article, "Metals and Alloys" by Kenn Henderson, from the Quarterly. Thus making it know non members of NASC that we are trying to publish worthwhile and knowledgeable articles for the membership.

GLENDALE COIN CLUB

February the clubs annual White Elephant Sale netted the club 62.30. The club recently welcomed our new members.

ISRAEL COIN CLUB of L.A.

Dr. Sol Taylor was the guest speaker in May. His presentation of "Allegorical Figures In Israel's Coins" kept all present spellbound. Dr. Taylor has been collecting since 1938 and has received many awards, both Literary and Educational from many organizations. Articles by him have been published in The Numismatist, Coin World, World Coins and in the N.A.S.C. Quarterly.

June the club celebrated its sixth birthday. The meeting was held at the Elks Lodge Temple for this affair. Special refreshments were served, so special it could almost be classed a banquet. Program "Portrait of Israel Through Its Commemorative Coins" by Claire and Ben Belson. This was the first showing of the program to a club. Dr. Nathan Gitlin presented the program for July, his subject, "The Hadassah Hebrew University School of Dentistry Alpha Omega Medal -- Its Genesis and History".

A MIRADA COIN CLUB

Joy Parrish February guest speaker, took the members on a tour with her subject, "Let's Travel Through American History with Wooden Money". "Other Hobby Night" was the program in March. "The Face of Lincoln" a film was shown during the April meeting. May meeting guest speaker, Charles G. Colver spoke on, "U.S. Cents".

LOS ANGELES COIN CLUB

June meeting the guest speaker was Charles G. Colver, his topic, "The Lincoln Cent". July meeting featured C.A. "Slim" Dunbar who chose as his presentation, "Fractured Currency".

LERC COIN CLUB

June 2nd and June 16th meetings featured a five card auction, also the July 7th and July 21st. The bulletin is well done, lists items of interest and a complete listing of door prizes, but what has happened to educational meetings, or are they not listed?

MONTEREY PARK COIN CLUB

June meeting program was a quiz. According to the bulletin, most of the officers were absent due to illness or other unknown reasons.

July was another quiz on Shield Nickels.

Nº. AMERICAN AVIATION STAMP & COIN CLUB

Trade - Wins is the monthly publication of the North American Aviation Stamp and Coin Club. June featured guest speaker, well known John Miles Baker of Certified Coins. He presented his new slide program titled "Wedding of the Coins and Stamps of Israel". The editor wonders if the July and August issue blew away with the Trade Winds, since June issue was the last received.

NO. HOLLYWOOD COIN CLUB

Guest speaker for the June meeting was Maurice M. Gould showing slides of "The Marriage of Coins and Stamps". His presentation was not only educational but amusing, due to a slight mix-up of slides that did not follow in order. Kidding among those present resulted with Jean Gould caught in the barrage. Everything was rectified and a good time was had by all.

Joseph Miller, well known for his work with the juniors, at the May meeting presented gifts to all the ladies assisted by the junior members. June was a repeat with a gift for the fathers, commemorating Father's Day.

Charles G. Colver guest speaker for July, really gets around and travels many miles to present programs. His presentation was "Coins of The British Commonwealth".

The club has come up with a new idea for presentation to their guest speakers. A Medal with the speakers name engraved on it. The medal is suspended on a ribbon with a pin at the top and can be worn by the speaker. If other clubs have new ideas for presentation to their speakers please share it with us.

ORANGE COUNTY COIN CLUB

"Ivory as a Medium of Exchange", was the topic chosen by Clifford Kreizel for the June meeting. Slides were shown in support of the program, and a display of ivory which is used among the Eskimos.

The July program was an evening devoted to "Other Hobbies" which was quite a success. A variety of exhibits were on display, a total of eleven, all different. A change of pace whets the appetite.

Featured speaker for the August meeting, a very active numismatist, Mrs. Nona G. Moore. Her topic, "The Story of a Famous Mother, Elizabeth II".

PENNIES TO DOLLARS COIN CLUB

May meeting featured Mort Goodman presenting his interesting and complete slides of the U.S. Philadelphia Mint. It is reported members of the club learned much of the mint operations.

Junior Members held their display night, with seven ingenious coin displays, in June. First, second and third prizes consisted of trophies and a valued coin, the remaining displays received Honorable Mention Ribbons.

PICO RIVERA COIN CLUB

February meeting featured, Grab Jar, Lincoln Cents 1958 and before. Here is how it works; a limit of five per participant, for each coin you place in the Grab Jar, you will receive one ticket. Later there is a ticket draw and the winner receives the coins in the Grab Jar. Who said there is nothing new?

William Wisslead offered a very ormative talk to the members, his k concerned The Numismatic Association of Southern California and annual convention held at the s Angeles Hilton Hotel in Feb.

Grab Jar in March was foreign ns only. Guest speaker for the eting, Xenia Kreizel who related History and Coinage of Ireland.

MONA VALLEY COIN CLUB

June the club held their SUPER CTION consisting of 250 lots.
report received on the outcome, must have been a success since report in the bulletin states, ngs are back to normal following super auction.

July speaker was Randy Briggs, subject, "Coins of Ceylon Bee 1820".

"A Female Bella Slave and nbuctu", was the program pre-ted by Leona Kohl at the August eting.

Check the coming events for 11th Annual Coin-O-Rama of the b.

IN FERNANDO VALLEY COIN CLUB

Ethel Lenhart of Upland pre-ted her historical program titled, alifornia Missions". To try and the many things Ethel has done is doing for numismatics would e several pages. If you missed talk, you missed an interesting informative one in June.

July featured speaker, past sident Peggy Borgolte her sub-e, "A Numismatic Tour of Israel" ed out to be a color film titled,

"A Pictorial Tour of Israel". Peggy also told those present of the many interesting and exciting experiences of her recent visit to Israel.

SAN GABRIEL VALLEY COIN CLUB

Dr. Lloyd Ermshar has an amazing collection of items that he has received through the mail over the years. In May he shared part of his collection, completing the members "odd bits of information" education.

"Revolutionary Paper Money of Russia", accompanied by slides and a running commentary was presented by John Ballard, at the June meeting.

SOCIETY for INTERNATIONAL NUMIS . (L.A.)

Program for May was a slide presentation by William Braithwaite entitled "Mayan Ruins in Yucatan".
Do not miss this outstanding program and the history of a fascinating era, check your club bulletins for advance notice.

A special joint meeting with the Organization of International Numismatists (O.I.N.) was held June 19th during the C.O.I.N. convention to explore areas of mutual cooperation. Panel members from both S.I.N. and O.I.N. were James Betton, Peggy Borgolte, Maurice
Gould, Virgil Hancock, Laura Nemez, Jerry Yahalom and Randolph Zander. There was open discussion from the floor.

SOUTHEASTERN SIERRA C.C.

The twelfth annual coin festival was reported extremely successful. The Club Juniors contest winners were Jeff Clarkson, First Prize and Kevin Kittle, Second Prize. The juniors sold 26 books of tickets.

August was the annual picnic of the club and was a Pot Luck affair.

SOUTHERN HUB COIN CLUB

Guest speakers for May were three Mothers presenting as their topics "Three Famous Mothers". Queen Victoria by Sally Marx; Queen Elizabeth by Joy Parrish and Maria Theresa by Mary Capozzi.

TORRANCE COIN CLUB

May program "Fractional Currency" was presented by C.A. Dunbar (my how he gets around). Six new members were voted into membership at the April meeting.

Lloyd Hill told of interesting incidents in coin collecting at the July meeting originally scheduled for June, he was unable to attend. Dick Thatcher was the June speaker, sorry his topic was not reported.

TUSTIN COIN CLUB

Program guest speaker for June was Maurice M. Gould, his subject was not received, but knowing Maury as most of us do, it could only be interesting, informative and maybe a few remarks just to see if everyone was listening.

The club has already obtained enough new A.N.A. members to have credit for the club dues next year. So far this is the ONLY club that I have heard reached this goal. CONGRATULATIONS."

"Influence of the Franco Prussian War on Numismatics" was the subject of Bryan O. Burke, Jr. guest speaker for July.

G.A. Ayers was the guest speaker in August, his subject, "Circus Script" sounds interesting.

Another first for Tustin, they planned ahead for the slow months, summer vacation time when attendance falls off. Their budget set for the year assures members and guests there will still be a $20 U.S. Gold piece along with other door prizes.

VENTURA COUNTY COIN CLUB

Happily the May bulletin of the club was passed on to me by a friend and so there is some news to report. Guest speaker was a member of the Fire Department. Please add the Editors name to your mailing list.

VERDUGO HILLS COIN CLUB

The May issue of the Newsletter contained a letter from the editor which was a brief history of the publication.

Mary Ellen Newell guest speaker for June spoke on "Oddities and Errors" accompanying her talk with slides. Mary Ellen has been collecting these items long before anyone else that I know of and I would say is really an authority in her field.

Doctor I. Q. visited the club in July for the clubs annual "Quiz Night"

WEST VALLEY COIN CLUB

Ethel R. Stone and Alva Christensen were guest speakers in May.

How can one tell you about the program they gave? It is something all could hear, it defies the imagination.

June speaker Betty Case, her topic, "Member's Exhibits". Betty has won many awards so if you miss the meeting you are the loser. I am certain you could have learned many of the fine details of exhibiting.

July the club held a "White Elephant Sale", to put it in the words of the editor of the bulletin, "We will not have a guest speaker this month. Instead, we will let out Big White Elephant Sale speak for us".

HITTIER COIN CLUB

March meeting program was a coin titled "Face of Lincoln". International Auction Time - the 7th annual auction was held in April. Dan and Claire Abelson guest speaker in May presented their program titled, "Israel's 20th Anniversary." Perhaps all the members were present to see this fine presentation compiled, filmed and arranged by this numismatic family.

"Civil War Tokens" was the topic of guest speaker Dr. Robert Blum at the June meeting. July meeting guest speaker, Irwin Brotman choose as his subject, "The Heritage of Coins".

The club in July reported 148 members, 35 of whom are juniors. Title of their publication "The Proof Sheet", in March they changed the format, for a four page publication it is loaded with information.

The editor's special thanks goes to Dr. Sol Taylor, why? I was attending a club at the same time as Dr. Taylor and remarked that I had not received the club publication and wondered what had happened. Within a short time I received the publications of the months noted above. Please add the editors name to your mailing list for future publications.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Five more clubs have mailed their bulletins for this issue which brings it to approximately half of our member clubs reporting. Where are the other half??

GROWTH - All growth depends upon activity. There is no development physically or intellectually without effort, and effort means work. Work is not a curse; it is the prerogative of intelligence, the only means to manhood, and the measure of civilization.
